partnership with PeaceTech Lab for development of Hate Speech Lexicon Three ground-truthing sessions were held in Nairobi on 6th, 7th and 8th of October to discuss the findings of the South Sudan lexicon research. There were a total of 3 sessions for students (6th October), women (7th October) and a mixed group of exiled professionals, activists and religious leaders (8th October). Participants gave input on the terminologies provided in the lexicon and to find alternative terms that can be used that are not derogatory and would enable people to communicate and interact online without spreading hate.

Over four years the
#defyhatenow initiative brought together an inspiring and dedicated team to develop counter strategies as part of a global "dangerous speech" mitigation community.
Their efforts are reflected in the impact and range of #defyhatenow activities.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

#defyhatenow is managed and facilitated locally by a network of teams and partners in South Sudan, Sudan, Kenya and refugee settlements such as Rhino Camp, Bweyale, and Adjumani in Uganda, working together with r0g_agency in Berlin.

The #defyhatenow initiative to combat social media hate speech by the r0g_agency for open culture and critical transformation gGmbH, Berlin, with partners in South Sudan and internationally, is funded by the ifa - Institut für Auslandsbeziehungen (zivilik) with means of the German Federal Foreign Office (Auswärtiges Amt).
